Great riding
David, impressive.

This was the first visit to Cadwell this season for me, Dad happily avoiding the previous wet weekend in June.

So after a promising first test session on Friday I awoke feeling happy with the fixes to the bike and my pace would be good in the races. Little did I know that a full seasons worth of bad luck was heading my way and I wouldn't finish a race on the Saturday due to a series of really frustrating mechanical faults that only cropped up on the track, everything was sorted for Sunday.

Race 1

This race was super close with Mark (Taylor & sons) finishing 2nd to Pete woody Woodall crossing the line first, a similar story with Taff and Greg Wright both riding great! Close on the line and Andrew Wales taking the last podium spot with Greg finishing 4th. Good to see Chris Watson in 8th and Konrad Breese finishing 7th, it has to be said our Gary Howlett was on great form and was good for 5th. I was able to watch some of the action from the mountain and Mark wins the biggest wheelie award. To everyone else who finished, congrats.

Race 2

Beautiful Sunny conditions and another I'm riding the boots of it performance from the free cake man, Chris Kent. Free cake is always appreciated I'm a skinny un anyway. The win went to Mr Woodall again with Mark in 2nd. I thought that Mark might of got him on the last lap but Pete is wise to this. Good points in the bag. Nick Bettridge people call him whatever you like weirdy beardy but he's riding is constantly improving and crossing the line in 8th not too shabby for a rookie! Lee hardy was also up there in 6th. Chris Rogers got the honours weaving the chequered flag and resident Bemsee recovery team squished 4 zeds and riders in the back of the van and fed us chocolate fingers.

A trip out to Louth with the Cox's for fish n chips was a laugh and we arrived bang on time for another fantastic bbq hosted by the ever fantastic Duane and Kathryn this is what it's all about. I might haven't had a good day on track but the MZ paddock family remain the best bunch of people you could spend your time with!

PS. thanks for my Birthday card and cake!:) xx

As my eyes slowly open to the sight of my dad trying his best at attempting to get out the car to make himself a cup of tea and then leave the door open at half six in the morning, I realise the bastard isn't going to let me sleep in anymore.

Then, taking a moment, acknowledging the fact that I didn't dream that Rob Dessoys really did come all the way to Cadwell to give Greg a good luck kiss, I get on with the early morning preparations. I seem to go best in the first race of the weekend so I spend most of my morning figuring out how to get myself back into that headspace, with that thought in mind I head out for practice chasing the 2:04 I did previously.

Race 1

The race comes and I'm on the grid for the warm up lap. Dan Barford gets a great start and makes me look like I'm going backwards. By the time I've processed that I'm slowing down over the mountain as I watch him and his machine part ways, I can't help but feel for the poor marshal that has to put up with him for the next 15 minutes. My starts haven't been great all year and race three was no exception I can't seem to keep up with old pirate Dave and his parrot Mark Vincent after fighting with them for a few laps I can't hold them off anymore and they slip away. As the 7 laps of Cadwell seem to be never ending I am slowly drawing in Dave but it's not enough with me finishing 4 seconds behind him in 19th place. That being done, the long wait begins with Nick Bettridge telling me the story of how Gary Howlett has shipped in gold duck tape from the states for his wheel weights setting him back £40 to match his wheels! Nobody says it but we all can't help but admire his great attention to detail when we see his bike parked at several corners of the race track over the course of the weekend. With race 15 about to get underway we all kill our engines to wait for the helicopter to land. Having all put our bikes up against the wall it feels like a great time to introduce myself to the very good looking marshall that I always see at the side of then grid. But, by the time I waltz over Max Maud has already made her laugh and I swiftly make my excuses and walk back to my bike, bloody northerners! I made a surprisingly good start and tried to stay with my new found enemy Max Maud in those early laps. He continues to drop me after a quick dice with Mark and Duane my legs seem to give up on me and settle with 18th.

The weekend once again starting well and ending up disappointing in terms of results. When you start racing it's all about the bike, when you are racing you realise it's really just battling yourself and it's something I look forward to improving on as I'm sure it's 80% of the battle. I get back to find I'm very pleased to see Chris and Greg in the top three with both of them giving me some advice and a helping hand over the weekend. The weekend ends with Greg being given a trophy, not bad for a man in his late 50's, that's going to look great on the nursing home mantel piece.

Hi everyone, was my first ever race at the weekend and first time at Cadwell and riding a mz. Apart from my off and four terrible starts I absolutely loved it! Will try to get back out again before the end of the season and hopefully something sorted for next year!

Big thanks to Duane and Kathryn for their hospitality and food over the weekend.*

*Chris Chad
Awsome meet guys and girls, thanks for all the help and guidance especially to Gary Williams and Barry Green. Bring on Indy.*

*Chris Kent
Home from Cadders ok. Hope everyone got home safely. Great racing this weekend. Loved mixing it at the sharp end. Maybe I'll try and stay upright a bit longer next time haha.
See you at Brands!*

Hi gang Dave aka crazy frog #7 had my worst weekend racing two DNF and two bad results but that's racing, bike would not restart for last race on the grid despite Chris Palmers best efforts to get me going. Top banana but seeing Dan aka guy Martian getting a race flag to flag made up for watching from pit wall cheered him on every lap.

Looking forward to brands

*Helen Finch
Well done to Peter Woodall for winning the BMZRC Senior cup (40+) and to Baz (Alexandra Green) for winning for BMZRC Mave Higgins Trophy (50+).*

*Peter Mannerling
Well done baz !! King dribbler 2015!!!! Top riding mate (for a no-good rozzer)*

Post card

Had a great weekend in Belgium on the roads, racing at Gedinne, one of the best racing weekends i've had!!!

Spent with great company all weekend!!

Qualified in 3rd after having only 6 laps in practice due to short sessions. 1st race went well finished in a solid 3rd behind a Belgium rider. In the second race i was first off the line and took the lead for half a lap eventually finishing 2nd and having a great battle for the first half of the race!! Was an amazing weekend and can't wait to get back out for the next classic round at Lydden (below)

Top weekend at round 6 of CRMC championships onboard the Harris TZ350. Stayed dry all weekend and came home with 2nd, 3rd, 3rd and DNF due to a crash. Trying to hard on the 2nd lap and lost the front in the left hander due to cold tyre oh well that's racing as they say!!
